

Harkness Trophy Race a Carnival for Goodyear Cords

Aitken Distances All Rivals By 105.86 Miles an Hour Pace In 100-Mile Event At Sheephead Bay

Galvin, Wilcox, Henderson and Devore, all on Goodyear Cords, Capture Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Places.

Saturday, on the Sheephead Bay Speedway, the audacious skill of Johnny Aitken and the meteoric speed of the Peugeot he drove captured the Harkness Trophy, established a new American record, and wrote another brilliant chapter into the racing history of Goodyear Cord Tires.

Saturday, the speed, the spring, the athletic vitality and stubborn stamina of these tires successfully fought off every punishment and outgamed every ordeal that sustained speed can provide.

Saturday, another hundred miles of proof of Goodyear Cords' superiority was piled upon the impressive structure already established.

The qualities in Goodyear Cord Tires that triumphed over competition and hardship in the Harkness

Race and in similarly severe and spectacular contests that have gone before, led to the adoption of these tires as standard equipment on the Franklin, the Packard Twin-Six, the Locomobile, the Peerless, the White, the Haynes Twelve, the Stutz, the McFarlan, the Roamer and the Lexington "Thoroughbred Six."

They should lead to the adoption of these tires as exclusive equipment on your car.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio

Some of the racing achievements of Goodyear Cord Tires in the past few months are as follows: First Place in the Kansas City 100-mile race; First, Third, Fourth and Fifth Places in the Tacoma 300-mile race; First Place in the Cincinnati 300-mile Sweepstakes; First and Second Places in the Record-Breaking Astor Cup 250-mile race at Sheephead Bay; Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Places in the 250-mile Grand American race on the Chicago Speedway; First, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Places in the Harkness Trophy Race.

NORWICH TOWN

Taylor-Gardner Wedding—Hallowe'en Costume Party—Trip Over The Mohawk Trail—New Crossing at Station.

The marriage of Mrs. Lena T. Gardner and Harry J. Taylor took place Tuesday in New London, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. R. Roney, pastor of the First Congregational church. Mrs. Taylor is the daughter of Mr. Thorton B. Barber of Peck's Corner and her early life was spent on Plain Hill with Mr. and Mrs. Barber. She has been a frequent visitor in Norwich Town where she has many friends. Mr. Taylor is in the employ of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. They will reside in New London.

Many at All Saints' Day Services. Large congregations attended the All Saints' day services in St. Patrick's church. Low mass at 8 o'clock was read by Rev. Peter J. Cuny and at 7 by Rev. Myles P. Galvin. High mass at 8 was sung by Rev. J. J. Broderick and the choir sang Joseph's melodious mass, the solos being pleasingly sung by Mrs. Frank A. Farrell.

The epistle for the day was Apoc. vi. 7-12. Father Broderick read the day's gospel, Matt. v. 1-12. The Beatitudes, as taught by the Saviour. The vestments and altar hangings were white, and the flowers which adorned the altars were chrysanthemums.

Not At All Funny. Cedars and hemlocks which had been placed about the West Town street schoolhouse for winter decoration, were pulled up and scattered about the street Tuesday evening by those intent on Hallowe'en pranks.

Motored Over Mohawk Trail. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Jacobson of Turvane street and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hanson of Mansfield took a motor trip of 272 miles over the Mohawk Trail this week.

Guests Came in Costume. A Hallowe'en party was held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Florence Robbins on West Town street.

Games of all kinds were played. There were costumes of witches, clowns, the Goddess of Liberty and other varieties. Sandwiches, doughnuts and cheese and pumpkin pie were the seasonal refreshments served by the hostess.

Dead Season. Deer were seen Tuesday on the Sackem Plain road, one of them a doe, walking leisurely down the road.

A new wooden crossing is being put in at the Norwich Town station on the Central Vermont railroad.

Charles Tillinghast and children motored from several points this week to visit friends on Sturtevant street.

Mrs. Sarah Briggs and Miss Agnes Thorp of Sturtevant street were in Westbury this week to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fenner's daughter from New York is visiting them at their home on the Taftville road.

Miss Mae Pierce of Westbury was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. John L. Brooking at her home on East Town street.

Mrs. Harry Beebe has returned to her home on Otisboro avenue, after a few days visit with friends in Bloomfield and Hartford.

Frank Wilcox of the Scotland road has returned from Winsted after being there several days and will be in New London for a time.

Additions including a piazza are being made to the Robert Dunderdale house at hospital corner. Different houses about town have been painted and other improvements made during the pleasant October days.

M. S. C. CLUB ENTERTAINED. Hallowe'en Meeting at Home of Mrs. Oliver Church in Poquetanuck.

The M. S. C. club of Poquetanuck was delightfully entertained at a Hallowe'en party at this week's meeting Tuesday evening, when the members were guests at the home of Mrs. Oliver Church, Mrs. Frederick D. Mil-

JUDGE WILL CHARGE JURY TODAY

Testimony in North Stonington Branch of Peace Case Occupied Session of Common Pleas Court on Wednesday—Punctured Tire Caused Delay in Opening of Court—Case Will Probably be Decided This Forenoon.

When the common pleas criminal court adjourned on Wednesday afternoon the arguments had been completed in the case of the state vs. Anne Main, Floyd L. Main and Leonard R. Main, all of North Stonington, and Judge Charles B. Waller will charge the jury when court reopens this (Thursday) morning. It is expected that the case will be decided some time this morning.

One of the jurors, Herbert S. Houston, of Salem, was missing when court was called to order at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, and Sheriff Brown went out to look him up. He located him riding on a trolley en route to the court room. Juror Houston stated to the court that it was necessary for him to go home Tuesday night. On the road on Wednesday morning he had a blowout which delayed considerably, and then had to complete the trip by trolley. The trial was then continued.

All of the forenoon was taken up by the defense, who introduced as witnesses Wallace Phillips, Leonard Main, Leonard R. Main, Frank C. Brown, John L. York, Oscar E. Taylor, Mrs. Leonard R. Main, Evelyn Main, Floyd L. Main and Mrs. Mary Taylor, and photographs of the scene of the trouble in North Stonington were presented as exhibits.

After Mrs. Taylor left the stand, Lawyer Stewart announced that the defense rested.

Charles N. Brown, Charles T. Coats and Frank White testified in rebuttal for the state. H. Frank Button was then called in rebuttal by Lawyer Stewart and both sides rested at 3.10. The arguments were then made and court adjourned about 4.30 o'clock until 10 o'clock this morning.

HOW ENLISTED MEN MAY BE DISCHARGED

Regulations for National Guard issued by Adjutant-General Cole.

Pending the publication by the war department of regulations for the National Guard, the following procedure in the matter of applications for discharge is to be followed according to general orders issued Wednesday by Adjutant-General George M. Cole:

Enlisted men who have been called into the service of the United States cannot be discharged, except by expiration of enlistment, without the approval of the department commander, or the war department.

Enlisted men who are not in the service of the United States, but who have taken the oath prescribed by the act of congress approved June 3, 1916, should not be discharged at the expiration of the first three years of enlistment period of six years, but should be furloughed to the National Guard Reserve unless they make written application to continue in active service.

Enlisted men who have not taken the federal oath may be discharged under such laws as may be in force in the particular state or territory, except that if they were subject to the call of June 18, 1916, the authority of the war department shall be obtained.

The discharge certificates of enlisted men separated from the National Guard reserve should be signed by the adjutant general of the territory. A soldier who changes his residence within a state should not be discharged, but should be transferred by the adjutant general to the National Guard of the state, provided that when there is no organization of the National Guard located at his new residence the soldier shall be furloughed to the National Guard reserve by order of the governor.

Certificates of disability will be prepared by the military surgeon, commander and sent by him to the examining surgeon of the organization to which the soldier belongs. They will be completed and the soldier's name transmitted to the regimental commander who will forward them to the adjutant general of the state. If approved by the governor of the state, he will order the discharge.

Should an enlisted man make a permanent change of residence to another state and desire to complete his term of enlistment in the state of his new residence, his request should be referred to the adjutant general of the state for instructions pending the promulgation of regulations covering the subject.

The order also states that an organization cannot be recognized as National Guard until the authorized minimum number of enlisted men has been subscribed to and the organization is required by the defense act of June 3. This minimum number is as follows:

Company of infantry, 65; troop of cavalry, 65; company of coast artillery, 65; battery of field artillery, 135; field company signal troops, 75; ambulance company, 43; field hospital company, 35. In addition to the above, tables of organization organized militia 1914 require enlisted strength of organizations as follows: Headquarters company, 65; machine gun company, 50; supply company, 35.

INSPECTED NORWICH BRANCH OF NEW HAVEN ROAD.

Public Utilities Commission Were Taken Over the Line Tuesday.

The public utilities commission made its annual inspection of the New Haven road in New London and vicinity Tuesday. The inspection was made by Commissioner C. C. Edwell and Chief Engineer John Trumbull.

The members of the commission arrived Monday afternoon on the observation engine Naugatuck and left at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. The inspection took the public utilities officials over the main line to Westbury and then up the Norwich branch.

The members of the commission were accompanied by the officials of the New London division, including Superintendent Motsett, Trainmasters Whitford, Walker and Hofferker and Chief Train Dispatcher Rawley.

New-London to Great Secretary Daniels.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels will pass through New London Saturday afternoon on his way from New York to Newport. He will arrive at four o'clock and will make a stop.

Secretary Daniels has shown himself most favorably disposed toward New London in the matter of the submarine base, it has been suggested that he be greeted at the Union station by a large delegation of business men and members of the Chamber of Commerce of New London.

Assessors Received Lists. Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock the board of assessors finished receiving lists of taxable property and all those who failed to get their lists into their hands during the month will have a 10 per cent addition made to their list, which will be supplied by the assessors. The assessors will be engaged for some time now in the routine work of the office preliminary to making up the lists.
